PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Catholic Family Services, a non-profit agency, was originally established in 1955 by the St. Vincent de Paul Society with the goal of strengthening the family unit. Today Catholic Family Services continues this vision by providing the following programs and services:

- Counseling
- Psychiatry
- Community Education

STAFF

All of our clinicians possess a Masters or Doctoral degree in Psychology or Social Work. They are licensed professionals who are trained in the best practices:

- Parenting
- Stress
- ADHD
- Grief/ Loss
- Crisis/ Trauma
- Sexual Abuse
- Eating Disorders
- Depression
- Domestic Violence
- Anxiety
- Relationship Counseling
- Addictions
- Divorce
- Pornography

COSTS

Many private insurance companies and EAPs cover the costs of counseling and mental health services. We are happy to process insurance claims for reimbursement. For those who qualify, services are offered on a sliding scale.
